

A 6-day trip to visit three world cultural heritages in the centre of Vietnam: Hue, Hoi An, My Son

The visit to Cham Museum, Marble Mountains, stone- carving village of Non Nuoc, Son Tra beach

Three day Hue city trip to visit Thien Mu Pagoda, the tomb of King Minh Mang and King Tu Duc and Imperial Citadel

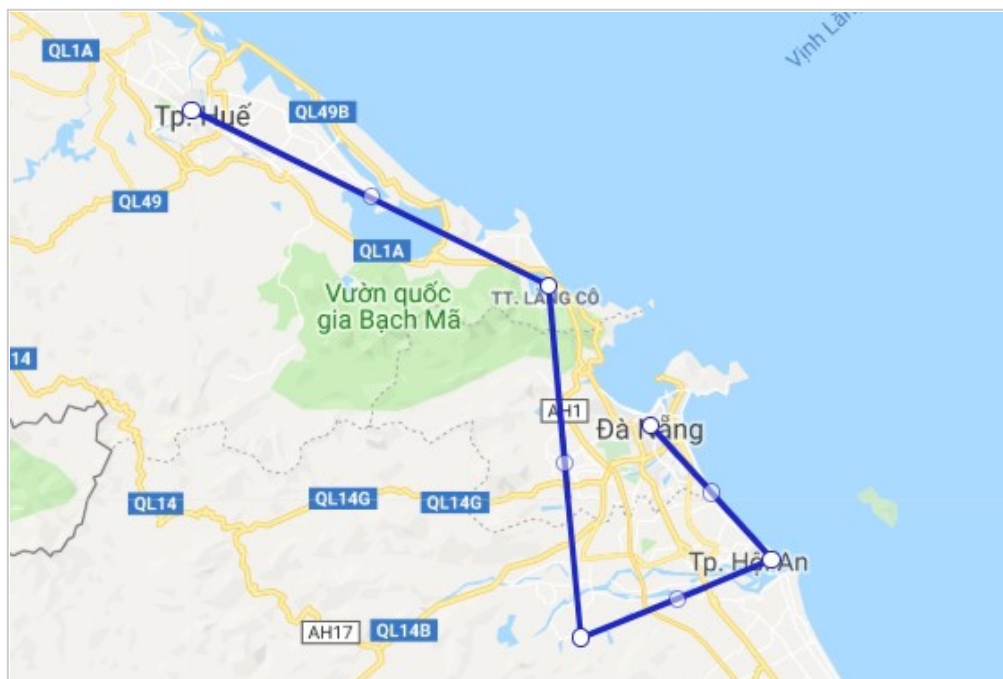

Trip Overview

This tour can be named as a heritage tour as it goes through 3 world cultural heritages in central Vietnam including Hue Ancient capital, Hoi An ancient town and My Son Holy land. The trip starts with the flight to Danang to visit Cham museum, China beach, etc. Then comes to Hoi An ancient town to discover the uniquely old things such as the ancient narrow lanes of Hoi An, Tan Ky old house, and so on. The tour continues with the discovery of the Cham people's style of architecture and sculpture in My Son Holy land. The last but not least interesting destination is Hue ancient capital, home to the formerly Royal family the tombs of Kings and other old-age but romantic places of interest.
