Itineraries

Day 1: Dong Hoi ? Phong Nha Cave

08:00 - 09:00 AM: Tour participants will be picked up at the hotel in Dong Hoi City/Phong Nha Town, and then taken down to the boat station located at the Phong Nha-Ke Bang Tourism Center.

The Phong Nha cave, also known as the “The First Wonder” is famous for the subterranean river that flows through it for approximately 8 kilometers. Participants will discover the Phong Nha cave by boat, kayak, foot, and swimming! This unique way of discovering the cave is a Phong Nha-Ke Bang Tourism Center exclusive and will account for an unforgettable experience.

After conquering the depths of the Phong Nha cave it’s time to head back to the village to recharge energy that’s needed for the following day.

Meals: L, D

Accommodation: Hotel

Day 2: En cave - Sinh Ton Valley (Survival Valley) ? Paradise Cave ? Dark Cave

This exciting day will kick off with a visit to En Cave which lies deep in the dense forest of the National Park. Hang En Cave is known for its beautiful surroundings and stalagmite and stalactite formations, although these formations are smaller than in other caves they can’t be missed. Visitors will get the chance to swim inside the cave as there runs a river inside of it. After visiting the Hang En cave it’s time to enter the Living Valley!

The Living Valley is part of the National Park and known for its many ancient trees, exotic flowers, unique plants and animals such as monkeys and colorful birds. After a trek visitors will reach the entrance of the Thuy Cung Cave which is also known as the Nuoc Lan Cave. It is located at the back entrance of Dark Cave, here is where visitors will set up camp and spend the night with some games, food, and drinks.
